

Suggested Issues to be considered for a Environmental & Social project review

Note: Cover issues as applicable, and as relevant to the facility/corporate being considered for investment

Compliance with Applicable Requirements

IFC Exclusion List, National Environmental and Social Laws and regulations, the IFC Performance Standards (as relevant)

Environment Issues associated with the project

Air Pollution, Water Pollution, Solid and Hazardous Wastes, Noise, Chemical Hazards and Emergency Management, Pesticide use and management, Resource conservation and energy efficiency measures arising from the project

Health, Safety and Labor Issues associated with the project

Working conditions and workplace housekeeping, Spills and their management, Workplace injuries and fatalities, Community health and safety, Emergency preparedness and response programs, Human resources policy, No exploitative child or forced labor, Compliance with national labor laws associated with the project

Social Issues associated with the project

Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement, Indigenous Peoples, Impact on local livelihood, Public Opinion and Consultation associated with the project

Sensitive Receptors potentially impacted by the project

Local Human settlements, Local Ecologically sensitive areas and protection and conservation of biodiversity, Sites of cultural importance that may be adversely impacted by the project

Reference information

For more information on the types of E&S issues that could pose risks to a project and approaches to their management, refer to the IFC Environmental and Social Standards

<http://www.ifc.org/ifcext/enviro.nsf/Content/EnvSocStandards>

For information on issues unique to individual sectors there are various Environmental, Health and Safety sector Guidelines at the following location

<http://www.ifc.org/ifcext/enviro.nsf/Content/EnvironmentalGuidelines>